

Sarah Lozon

1742 SW 38th Terrace, Apt 207

Gainesville, FL 32607

(301) 943-8025

lozon.srose@ufl.edu

Work Experience	Food Sensory Laboratory—Current Laboratory Technician, University of Florida <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Prepare samples using sterile, quality control, and good manufacturing practice to ensure participant safety▪ Facilitate the smooth operation of each panel by coordinating staff and instructing each panelist on proper tasting protocol▪ Collect sensory evaluation tests from participants for statistical analysis Starbucks—March 2019 to August 2019 Café Barista, Aramark <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Advanced customer experience by working quickly and efficiently in a fast-paced environment while focusing on tasks at hand as a barista▪ Received WEST (Welcome, Engage, Smile, Thank) recognition for excellent customer service from a corporate employee evaluation
Education	University of Florida – Gainesville, FL Bachelor of Science in Nutritional Sciences Expected: December 2021
Research	Research Laboratory Assistant—December 2020 to April 2021 Peggy R. Borum, Ph.D. Metabolic Assessment Laboratory <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Implement precision ketogenic therapy (PKT) to treat medically complex patients with epilepsy▪ Attend telemedicine clinics with patients to document progress, make diet prescriptions, and fulfill specific recipe requests▪ Organize patient folders in new formatting to reduce pathlength on Microsoft Teams and streamline previous records
Volunteer Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Volunteered at the College of Dentistry in Clinic 3A▪ Shadowed dental professionals during procedures including root canals, crown repair, and oral surgery▪ Prepared dental chairside kits with plastic surface barriers
Special Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ CPR and AED certified▪ Fundamentals of Dental Assisting certification▪ HIPAA and OSHA course completed▪ Microsoft Office proficient